Dedicated -

“ ’T is education
forms the common minds;
Just as the twig is bent
the trees inclin'd.”

—A. Pope

Sister Mary Rose Boothe, CSJ

Sister Mary Rose Boothe has toiled in His garden here at Sacred Heart Academy for many years, bending willful twigs. She demands that we live up to our potential, rather than settle for low expectations. When we are satisfied with half an effort, Sister Rose is not. Her strength bends our wills, yet does not break our spirits. She is an experience we value because now we are able to understand her love for us, and for Sacred Heart Academy. Today, taller graceful trees have her to thank.

with Love

“Qui dedit
beneficium taceat;
narret qui accepit.”

—Seneca

Sister Francis Dolores Valerio, CSJ

Sister Francis Dolores has offered constant support and direction to the women of Sacred Heart Academy for many years. We now have the opportunity to recognize her love and loyalty. We will not be silent. Thank you Sister, for opening our minds and our hearts to the beauty of past civilizations. Understanding the roots of our heritage helps us become better participants in the future.

Special Thanks

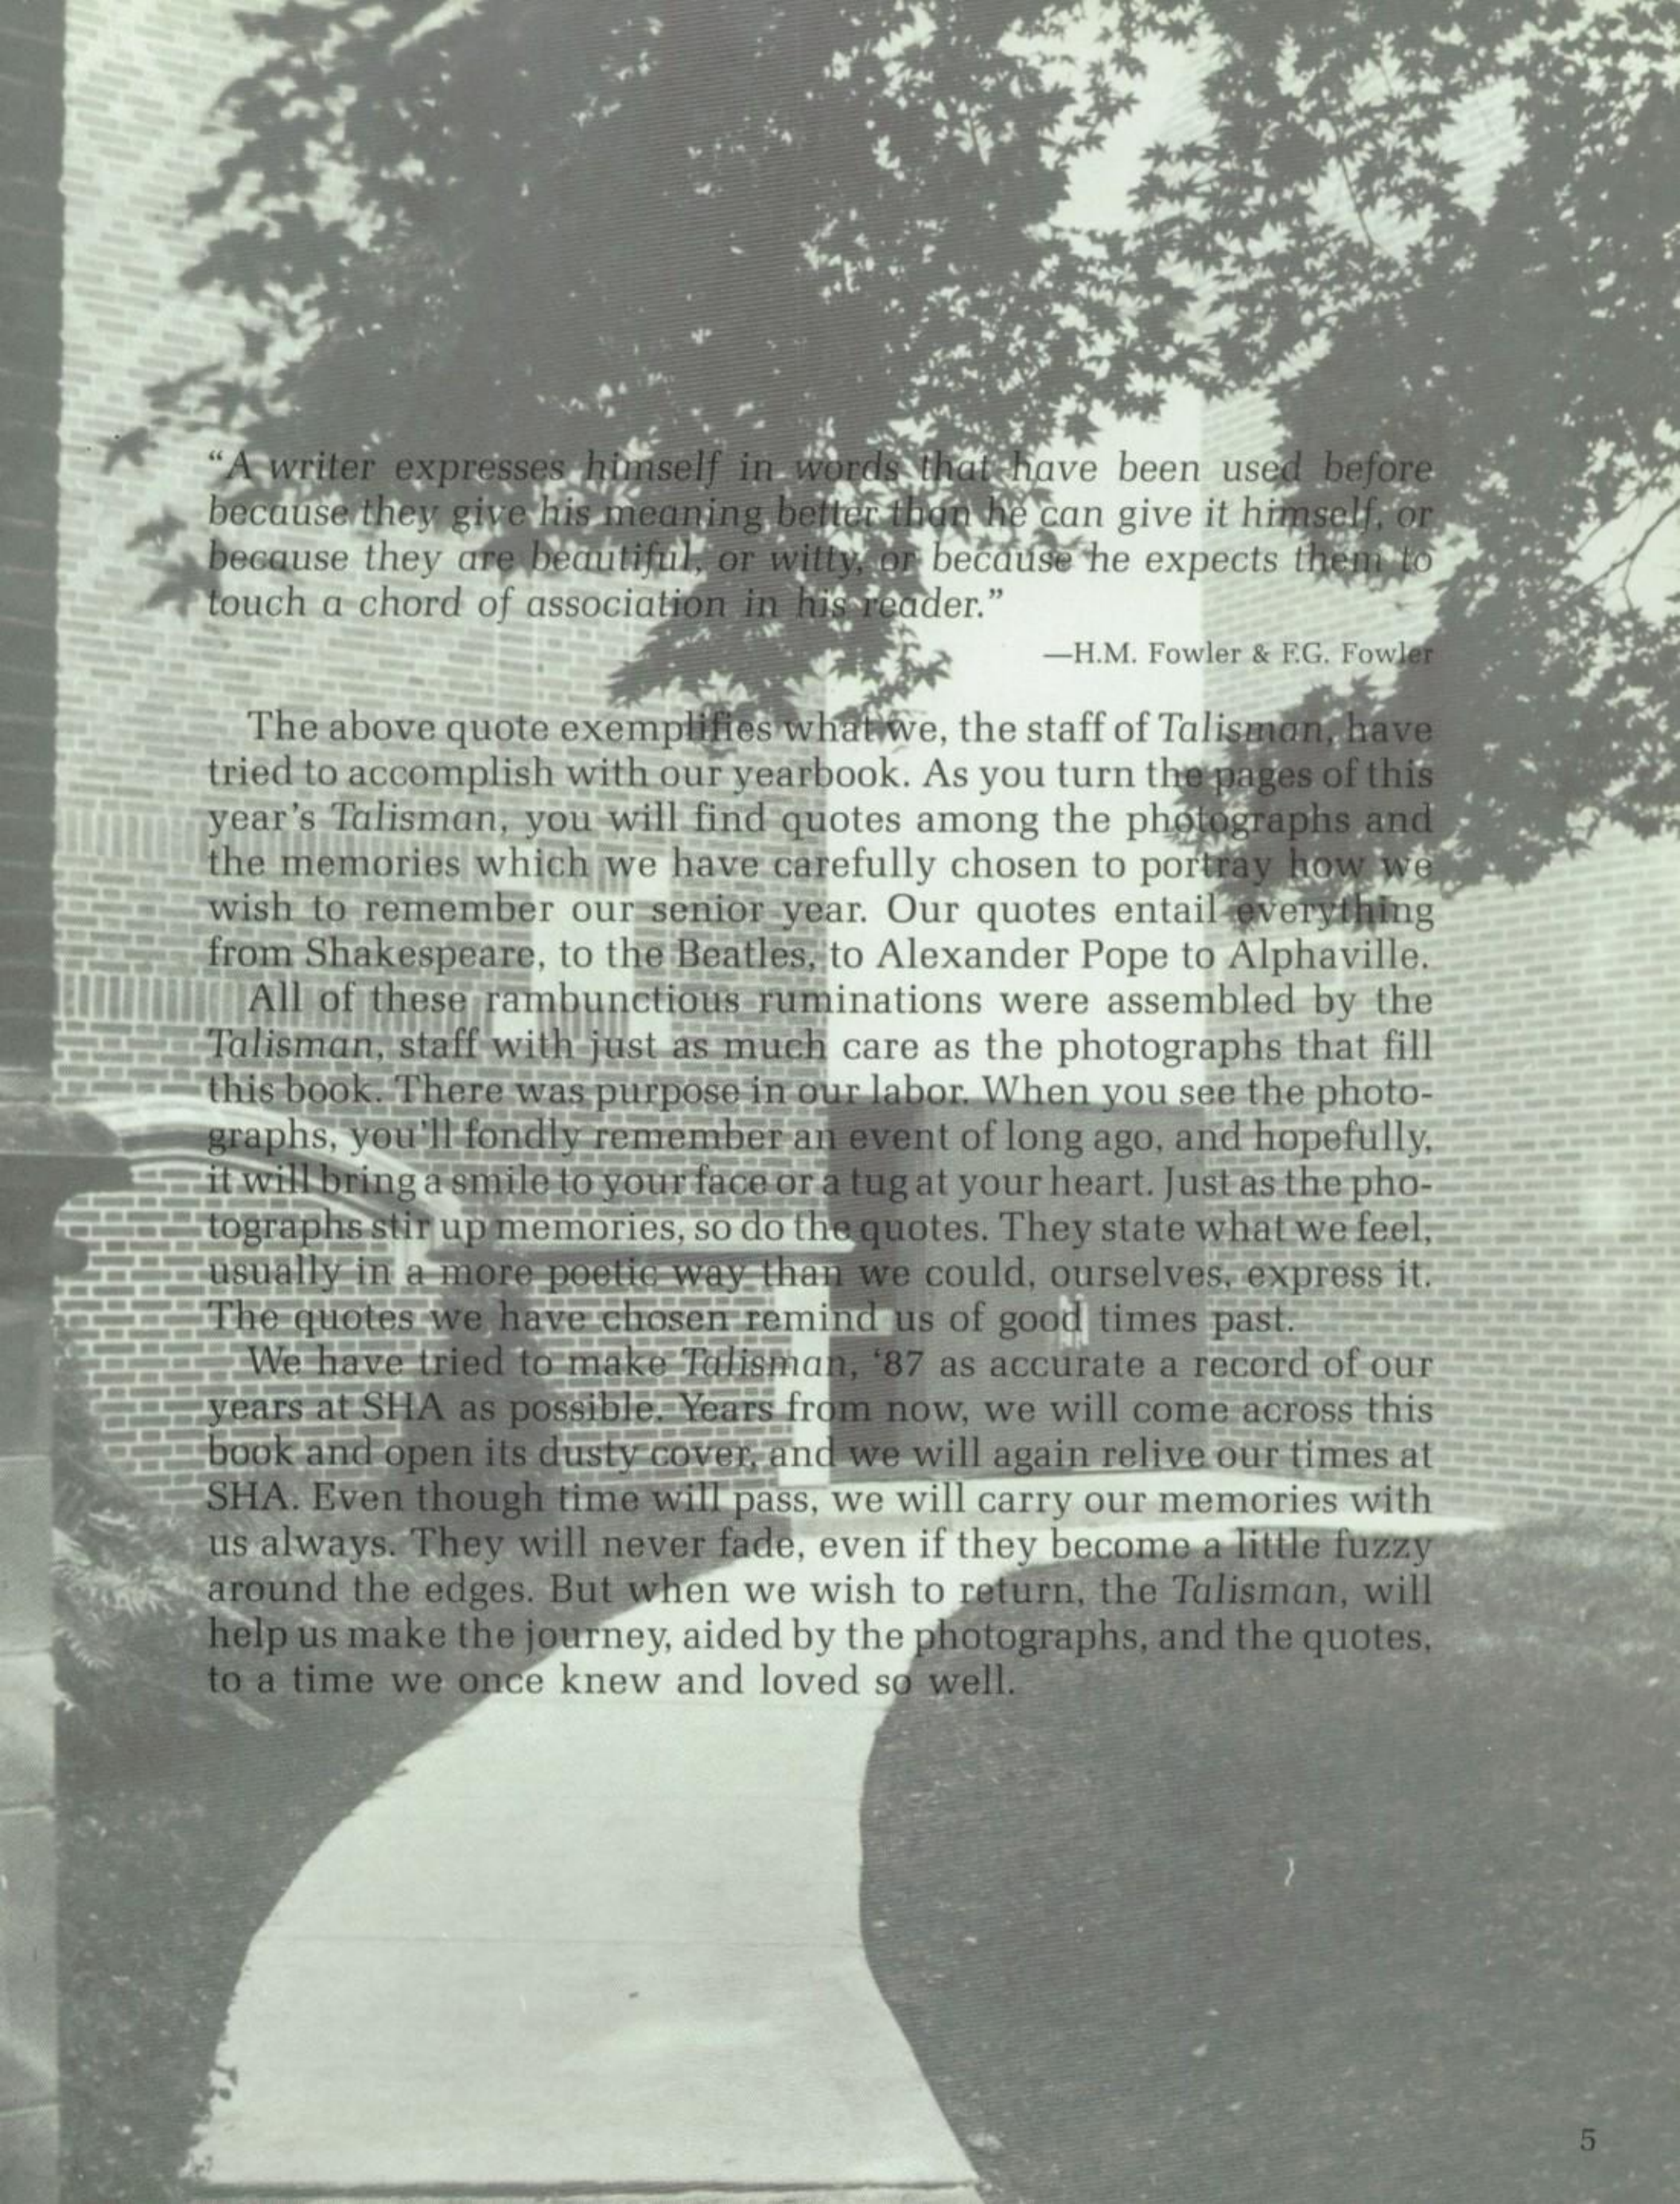

Dear Miss O'Doherty,

Our yearbook is an extension of ourselves. Those who read it and enjoy it should see us, and experience us. This is why we choose to place our "thank you" here. We want everyone to know we consider you a part of us.

As we embarked on our senior year, many challenges stood before us. We were overwhelmed, to say the least. It took you to help us realize our potential as a class. With your help and never-ending support we rose to the occasion, and accomplished much of what we set out to do. As you've said, "It's easy to dream, but doing it is another story." Without you, many of our dreams would never have become reality. We can depart from S.H.A. on a happy note, for we know this year was the best that it could have been. It was because of you that we were able to handle situations, and responsibly communicate with others; you enabled us to act maturely, yet never let us lose the qualities of our youth.

The senior class wishes to thank you for your kindness, your generosity, and especially for your love.

Thank you,
God Bless You,
The Class of '87

"A writer expresses himself in words that have been used before because they give his meaning better than he can give it himself, or because they are beautiful, or witty, or because he expects them to touch a chord of association in his reader."

—H.M. Fowler & E.G. Fowler

The above quote exemplifies what we, the staff of Talisman, have tried to accomplish with our yearbook. As you turn the pages of this year's Talisman, you will find quotes among the photographs and the memories which we have carefully chosen to portray how we wish to remember our senior year. Our quotes entail everything from Shakespeare, to the Beatles, to Alexander Pope to Alphaville.

All of these rambunctious ruminations were assembled by the Talisman, staff with just as much care as the photographs that fill this book. There was purpose in our labor. When you see the photographs, you'll fondly remember an event of long ago, and hopefully, it will bring a smile to your face or a tug at your heart. Just as the photographs stir up memories, so do the quotes. They state what we feel, usually in a more poetic way than we could, ourselves, express it. The quotes we have chosen remind us of good times past.

We have tried to make Talisman, '87 as accurate a record of our years at SHA as possible. Years from now, we will come across this book and open its dusty cover, and we will again relive our times at SHA. Even though time will pass, we will carry our memories with us always. They will never fade, even if they become a little fuzzy around the edges. But when we wish to return, the Talisman, will help us make the journey, aided by the photographs, and the quotes, to a time we once knew and loved so well.

"The whole art of teaching is only the art of awakening the natural curiosity of young minds for the purpose of satisfying it afterwards."

Can you imagine when this race is run?
We turn our golden faces into the sun.
It's so hard to get old without a cause,
I don't want to perish like a fading horse
Youth's like diamonds in the sun,
And diamonds are forever.
So many adventures could happen today,
So many songs we forgot to play
So many dreams swinging out of the blue
Oh let them come true!
I want to be Forever Young

 There's always another to capture your

Especially for Anthony:
It's just like me to say to you
Love me dear, an' I'll be true.
And all I want for you to say
Is you'll be there for me each day.
You could be my Love, that's what I want.
Keep me secure and safe from harm.
It's just like me to feel so good,
And fall so much in Love with you.

You might have heard I run with a dangerous crowd
We ain't too pretty, we ain't too proud
We might be laughing a bit too loud
But that never hurt no one
Only The Good Die Young!

When you're down
and troubled
When you need a helping hand
When nothing is going right
Just close your eyes
and think of me
Soon I will be there
To brighten up even your darkest night
Just call out my name
You know wherever
I am
I'll come running
to see you again
Cause you've got a friend.

Alison,

Whats up? nothin here. I want to tell you something, don't let anyone read this first of all. I want to be friends with you next year except we can't let everyone get in our way (werely specifically) fighting over her, I feel like a baby. Lets try really hard next year. I don't want to graduate hating each other. We have one more year lets get through it without fighting ok? Well, have a terrific summer. I'll see ya 'round.
